EVALINE WOVEN MATERIAL

SHOCK / ALTERNATIVE

- Fresh out of school, Evaline's earliest recordings found their way to The Used's Quinn Allman who produced the EP: Postpartum Modesty, A Portrait of Skin - released on Madonna's Maverick label in 2006. EL REGO
EL REGO
DAPTONE / ROOTS/RETRO

- El Rego is a true legend of African Soul Music. Here for the first time on album are 12 of his greatest recordings from the late '60s and early '70s hand-picked by Daptone Records.
- The music of El Rego varies astoundingly in style and rhythm: traditional rhythms of Benin played with modern instruments, John Lee Hooker-esque blues, Fela Kuti inspired afro-beat, afro-cuban claves, and straight-up James Brown style funk. However, there is a common musical thread that runs throughout. The music has a raw soulfulness and a unique flavor that can be attributed beyond the sound of Benin, to the sound of El Rego himself.
- As part of the Daptone 10th anniversary El Rego will feature in the Daptone campaign advertising. Marketing includes The MAG, RHYTHMS, National street press, 3RRR, 3PBS, 2SER radio, café posters, Facebook campaign.

TONY SLY
SAD BEAR
FAT WRECK / ALTERNATIVE

- Tony Sly (No Use For A Name) continues to illustrate his songwriting prowess with the release of his second full-length solo album 'Sad Bear' on Fat Wreck Chords.
- Tony's somewhat recent foray into recording as a solo artist has proven to be every bit as fruitful as his 20+ years fronting the legendary punk band No Use For A Name. On his own, Tony trades in the signature electric guitars and aggressive rhythms of NUFAN for a more subdued approach, featuring acoustic instruments and highlighted by his captivating melodies.
- 'Sad Bear' serves as a prism that reflects the spectrum of Tony's songwriting influences including such varied artists as The Beatles, Iron and Wine, Coner Oberst, and Elliot Smith.
- Guests include Joey Cape (Lagwagon), Karina Deniké (Dance Hall Crashers) with piano from Dustin Lanker (Cherry Poppin' Daddies).
