GABRIEL, PETER

NEW BLOOD

EAGLE / ROCK

- Filmed at Hammersmith Apollo in March 2011, 'New Blood – Live In London' captures Peter Gabriel performing live with the 46 piece New Blood Orchestra. The repertoire mixes cover versions from his 'cratch My Back' album with classic tracks from across his solo career in brand new orchestral arrangements.

- As you would expect the concert is also a visual feast, with graphics, animation and imagery blending to enhance and illustrate the music. This is truly a live experience not to be missed.

- Filmed in high definition and also available on BluRay, the release coincides with the release of the 'New Blood' studio album. The 3D version has already had a cinema run in Australia prior to this DVD release. Features many classic tracks including 'Biko', 'Red Rain', 'Solsbury Hill', 'Don't Give Up', 'Blood Of Eden', 'Mercy Street', 'Intruder' and more.

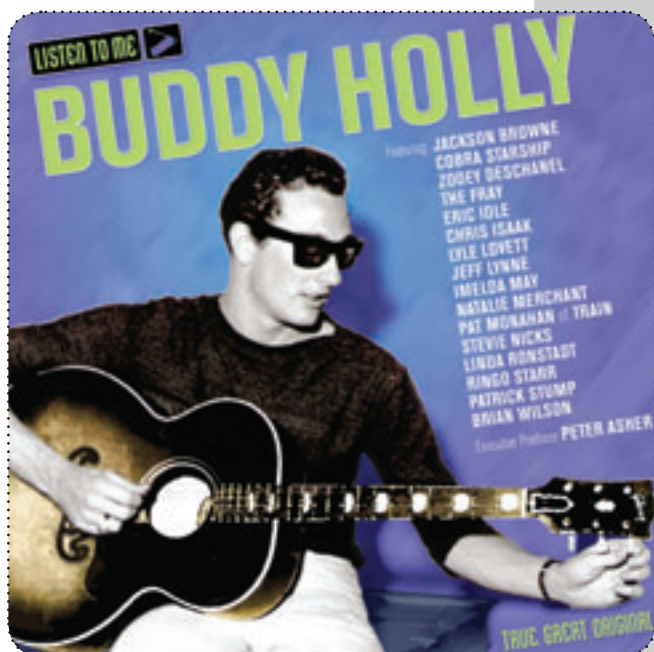

- Extensive service to Australian media, part of Eagle Vision print/ online campaign of key new titles. Also available on BluRay: Cat # KAL2324, APN 5021456182572, PPD $16.43 (pre-dist. fee & GST), S.O.R.

LIGHTS SIBERIA

LAST GANG / ALTERNATIVE

- When Canadian electro-rock sensation Lights first hit the music scene in 2008, she was just a songwriter with a synth and a dream. Her name may have been pluralized but Lights Poxleitner was a one-woman show who played and programmed her own instruments and sang her own lyrics. This admirable self-reliance is rare in pop—in fact, Lights, signed a publishing deal at 16 and began writing songs for other artists.
- In 2008 her self-titled debut EP was precocious enough to earn her a 'Best New Artist' Juno and in September 2009 Lights released her debut full-length follow-up 'The Listening' which has since received Gold certification in Canada.
- The dividend from her early award-winning success is her current artistic freedom. Not to mention her sprawling online footprint which includes over a half-million Facebook fans and over a quarter-million Twitter followers. Fast forward to 2011 and Lights is back with the release of her sophomore full-length album 'Siberia' (Last Gang Records / Lights Music) to be released in Australia October 28th via Shock Records.
- Siberia was co-produced by Lights and her trusted collaborator, Thomas "Tawgs" Salter. Special guest producers include Graham Walsh & Brian Borcherdt from acclaimed Canadian indie-electro outfit, Holy Fuck. The fellow Juno-winning duo initially met a when they both played the dance stage at last year's Reading and Leeds festivals in the UK. Impressed by their "grime and grit," she decided to see what might happen when she infused her pop sensibilities with their experimental tendencies. Their artistic synergies clicked and eventually they completed nine tracks (including "Everybody Breaks A Glass" and "Toes"), peppering Siberia with Holy Fuck's edgy organic grit and merging them with LIGHTS' trademark synth-pop sounds.

MILES DAVIS
THE DEFINITIVE
MONTREUX COLLECTION
1973-1991
EAGLE / JAZZ

- This historically important 10 DVD set captures all of Miles Davis' performances at the renowned Montreux Jazz Festival between 1973 and 1991, the last being less than three months before his death. It is an unparalleled archive of live Miles Davis performances and is now being released on a visual format for the first time ever.
- Although some tracks are repeated across the years, the concerts are strikingly individual with extensive improvisation and frequent rearrangements. The final concert from 1991 sees Miles Davis paying tribute to his collaborator and close friend Gil Evans, who had died in 1988.
- Superb packaging including a 48 page book that comes with a foreword by Claude Nobs, founder of the Montreux Jazz Festival, an introduction by Jon Newey, editor of Jazzwise magazine and sleeve notes on each performance by George Cole, author of "The Last Miles - The Music Of Miles Davis 1980-1991". Contains many unique Miles Davis performances.
- Already attracting huge attention in key jazz press, service to Australian media, glossy print ads.

A LOSS FOR WORDS
NO SANCTUARY
RISE RECORDS / PUNK

- In a world where some bands are handed everything on a silver platter, there are also bands who have worked for everything they have. Boston pop-punk outfit, A Loss For Words are at the top of that list.
- Having worked relentlessly, touring and doing everything DIY for years they are a group with unstoppable dedication, perseverance, and creativity. 2011 sees an impressive step forward and plethora of excitement for A Loss For Words as they have teamed up with Rise Records to release "No Sanctuary" produced by Andrew Wade (A Day To Remember, The Word Alive).
- A Loss For Words have been on the road touring ten months out of every year. Not only are they out there, playing countless shows, but they are watching other bands, learning and bettering themselves each performance. Shaking hands and putting on one of the most sweat-soaked and honest sets you can find with A Loss For Words, the guarantee is that no matter what town you live in, these guys will be there this year, ready to rock out and deliver a fantastic show.
- Having toured with a diverse group of bands such as Four Year Strong, In Fear and Faith, Set Your Goals and The Ghost Inside, A Loss For Words are able to bring their infectious tunes to all audiences in the all ages scene!

BLUEPRINT
ADVENTURES IN
COUNTER-CULTURE
RHYMESAYERS / HIPHOP/RAP

- Critically acclaimed emcee/producer and Soul Position frontman Blueprint returns with his highly anticipated sophomore solo release Adventures in Counter-Culture.
- Experimenting with synths, keyboards, and drum machines, Adventures in Counter-Culture touches on Blueprint's cynicism with the world, his disdain for pop culture, the state of politics, and an apathetic, uninspired society.
- The album encompasses every facet of music Blueprint knows. It blurs genre lines and connects his hip hop pedigree with his early days in the church choir, to the R&B bands he was a part of in high school, to his new found interest in rock and electronic music.
- After a five-year musical journey, Blueprint has emerged with his greatest effort to date. A culmination of self discovery and societal critique, Adventures in Counter-Culture is just that.

QUEENSRYCHE
MOORE
EAGLE / METAL

- Queensrÿche's two 'Operation: Mindcrime' albums (released in 1988 and 2006) tell the story of Nikki, a junkie, political revolutionary and assassin and his relationship with two key characters Sister Mary and the manipulative Dr X. Critically acclaimed and much loved by their fans the albums are two of the jewels in the crown of progressive metal.
- Following the release of 'Operation: Mindcrime II', Queensrÿche performed both albums in their entirety on tour in a mammoth stage production featuring actors, staging and films. Filmed on this tour in high definition at the Moore Theater in the band's hometown of Seattle over three nights in October 2006, 'Mindcrime At The Moore' is now released on Blu-ray for the first time and presents these legendary albums as they were meant to be seen and heard.
- First ever Queensrÿche Blu-ray release. Features Pamela Moore recreating her role as Sister Mary from both albums. Bonus features include Ronnie James Dio's only live performance in his role of Dr X from 'Operation: Mindcrime II'.

MARIACHI EL BRONX (II)

SHOCK / ALTERNATIVE

- Colored red, white and green vinyl. Single disc gatefold with digital download card.
- Punk rock. Mariachi. Two great tastes that go great together – er, right? Well, anyway, the two joined regardless one fateful August day in 2006, when The Bronx showed up to play on a television show. At the time, the Los Angeles-based punks were infamous for scabrous rifferama that suggested a return to L.A.'s golden age of hardcore (it's not coincidence that the band portrayed Black Flag in the Darby Crash biopic What We Do Is Secret, or went on their first tour with the Circle Jerks). The show requested the band play an acoustic version of "Dirty Leaves" off the band's second, self-titled album – a request that didn't sit well. "Going 'unplugged' was a '90s fad that I had a knee-jerk reaction to dislike," notes guitarist Joby J. Ford. "We wanted to do something a little bit different." Indeed, The Bronx took it one irreverent step further, donning uncharacteristic sombreros and arranging the song as a mariachi lament.
- The band's latest album, Mariachi El Bronx (II), finds them exploring new ground – from collaborating with Grammy-nominated Mariachi Reyna de Los Angeles (the first all-female mariachi group in the U.S.) to an even greater emphasis on storytelling craft and emotion in the lyrics. "It still has the naïveté and blind excitement of the first record, but it's more vulnerable,"

DEAD TO ME MOSCOW PENNY ANTE FAT WRECK / PUNK

- After the acclaimed release of their last full-length 'African Elephants' and many tours in support of the album, DEAD TO ME witnessed a changing of the guard with the retirement of guitarist Nathan and the addition of Sam Johnson (New Mexican Disaster Squad, No Friends, Virgins) on guitar and vocals and Ken Yamazaki (Western Addiction, Enemy You) on second guitar.
- Upon the inclusion of the new members, the quartet headed out on a full year of touring, cementing the most cohesive and committed incarnation of the band to date. This chemistry manifested itself distinctively in the recording of DTM's latest full length on Fat Wreck Chords 'Moscow Penny Ante'. With more up tempo and straight forward songs than their last album, 'Moscow Penny Ante' revisits and updates the classic sound that first caught everyone's attention on 2006's 'Cuban Ballerina'.

TS & THE PAST HAUNTS GONE & GONER NO SLEEP RECORDS / PUNK

- Formed out of the demise of Boston indie/punk rock royalty, TS & The Past Haunts came to be through mutual friends sharing common interests. Travis Shettel (TS/Totally Travis), guitarist, singer and ring-leader of the band Piebald, met The Duke Spirit (Shangri-La Records) when he was invited to take on tour manager duties for the band during one of their first US tours. Acting as a US Ambassador-of-sorts for the band, a friendship was formed and The Duke Spirit soon learned of Travis' musical past. After asking TS to join them both on the road and in the studio playing keys and percussion, it would only be a matter of time before they would return the favor. Travis and The Duke Spirit knuckled down in between their tours of Australia and the UK and recorded a handful of his songs; learning, writing and recording along the way.

SNAPPER / ROCK

- 2010 was a landmark year for The Pineapple Thief. The band released their latest album, the critically acclaimed 'Someone Here Is Missing' ('extremely classy and frequently mesmerising' Classic Rock), along with the 'Show A Little Love' EP ('it is here that the real magic of a band like TPT shines through' Classic Rock Prog) and followed a string of festival performances with a European tour.

- While these releases, along with 2008's 'Tightly Unwound', were many people's introduction to the band they have actually spent the past ten years quietly building up a dedicated fan base across the globe, selling over 25,000 records and nurturing their 'bittersweet' progressive sound. This release is the second in a series of re-mastered reissues from the band's back catalogue.

LONDON
SNAPPER / ROCK

- Gazpacho was formed in Oslo in 1996 by childhood friends Jon-Arne Vilbo and Thomas Andersen along with Jan-Henrik Ohme (later joined by Mikael Krømer, Robert R Johansen and Kristian Torp). The band have honed their unique sound, and a substantial international fan-base, over a string of critically acclaimed albums and numerous tours, including several with long-time supporters Marillion.

- Their latest album 'Missa Atropos' was released earlier this year on Kscope. Classic Rock described it as 'finely crafted, darkly atmospheric stuff', and following its release the band embarked on a European tour.

- 'London' captures the band's gig on this tour at the legendary Dingwalls venue in Camden. Classic Rock Prog described the evening as 'sublime' going on to state, 'with new album Missa Atropos to draw from as well as a catalogue of songs that draw favourable comparison with both Radiohead and a more sedate Muse, they fill the best part of two hours with invention and brio.'

TONY SLY
SAD BEAR
FAT WRECK / ALTERNATIVE

- Tony Sly (No Use For A Name) continues to illustrate his songwriting prowess with the release of his second full-length solo album 'Sad Bear' on Fat Wreck Chords.

- Tony's somewhat recent foray into recording as a solo artist has proven to be every bit as fruitful as his 20+ years fronting the legendary punk band No Use For A Name. On his own, Tony trades in the signature electric guitars and aggressive rhythms of NUFAN for a more subdued approach, featuring acoustic instruments and highlighted by his captivating melodies.

- 'Sad Bear' serves as a prism that reflects the spectrum of Tony's songwriting influences including such varied artists as The Beatles, Iron and Wine, Coner Oberst, and Elliot Smith.

- To further develop the aural layers of the album, Tony utilizes the vocal capabilities of Karina Deniké (Dance Hall Crashers) and Joey Cape (Lagwagon) to complement his own, and piano is played by Dustin Lanker (Cherry Poppin' Daddies).

DAVID LYNCH
CRAZY CLOWN TIME
SUNDAY BEST / ALTERNATIVE

PPD: $20.62
2LP: SBESTLP46

Available in double gatefold heavyweight vinyl x 2 with inner sleeves and download code.

- Visionary filmmaker David Lynch will make his solo debut as a musical artist this Spring with 'Crazy Clown Time'. Produced and written by Lynch, the album's 14 original songs spotlight him on guitar and vocals.
- Lynch recorded Crazy Clown Time over several months at his own Asymmetrical Studio with engineer Dean Hurley, who contributes guitar and drums to several songs. The recording process, Lynch recalls, was filled with happy creative accidents. "There were so many accidents; this album should be in the hospital."
- The tracks released last year hint at the album's range. The driving beat that powers "Good Day Today" also fuels "Stone's Gone Up," "Noah's Arc" and "Strange and Unproductive Thinking." While, the menacing shuffle of "I Know" also sends chills through "So Glad," "Football Game" and "Pinky's Dream", which features Karen O of the Yeah Yeah Yeahs
- Through the years, Lynch has collaborated frequently with others on various musical projects – composer Angelo Badalamenti (Twin Peaks), Polish pianist Marek Zebrowski (Inland Empire), plus Sparklehorse and Danger Mouse (Dark Night of the Soul). Crazy Clown Time, however, marks the first time Lynch steps into the spotlight alone.
