RISE AGAINST are celebrating the 10th anniversary of their breakthrough album, Revolutions Per Minute, with an deluxe reissue. This edition of Revolutions Per Minute (now dubbed RPM10) features 10 bonus tracks of demos along with the originally recorded album, enhanced artwork, and an expanded 20 page booklet. Produced by the renowned Bill Stevenson of the Descendents, and Jason Livermore, and recorded at the Blasting Room, this quintessential album shaped RISE AGAINST's sound with elements of hardcore, punk, and ripples of emo that cascade into what we know of the band today.

Joe Principe, formerly of 88 Fingers Louie, approached Fat Mike to sign RISE AGAINST back in 2000. Though their first album, The Unraveling, wasn't completely written, Fatty loved what he heard and signed them immediately. On their sophomore release, Principe recounts, "I'll never forget sitting in our van talking to Fat Mike on the phone after he listened to the RPM demos. He was so stoked on the songs and the progression of the band, which gave us a real sense of accomplishment. Since half of The Unraveling was written before RISE AGAINST existed, it made RPM the first record we wrote as a full band."

Principe, vocalist Tim McIlrath, guitarist Todd Mohny and drummer Brandon Barnes headed to the Blasting Room in 2002, armed with their new material. "We wrote these songs... in a post 9-11 fervor, the powers that be had just finished lying to the public and swindled their way into entering what would become the longest wars in our country's history (which seeped into songs like "Blood Red, White & Blue")," says McIlrath.

The connection with Bill Stevenson and his crew was instant. Once the recording process started, everyone involved could sense a tremendous kinetic energy; knowing the result would be monumental. "This was not just another "90's Punk/Warped-Tour" sort of band. What I heard was the promise of conviction... I remember the hair on the back of my neck stood up while I was recording the vocal on the breakdown of "Blood - Red, White & Blue"," reflects Bill Stevenson. Todd Mohny recalls, "They worked tirelessly to get the best performances out of us and to ensure that the finished product exceeded all expectations."

Obviously, 10 years later, the results speak for themselves. Revolutions Per Minute still stands out as a hallmark release for RISE AGAINST, Fat Wreck Chords, and the hardcore punk genre in general. RPM10 is the perfect tip of the cap to such a tremendous album.

GET UP! STAND UP! HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERTS

EAGLE VISION / ROCK-POP

“GET UP! STAND UP!” presents highlights from The Human Rights Concerts – the series of benefit concerts staged between 1986 and 1998, to raise awareness & funds for Amnesty International. The first set of performances come from “A Conspiracy Of Hope”, Amnesty’s 25th anniversary US concert tour in 1986. An extraordinary list of musicians contributed their services, including some of the world’s foremost artists - drawn from several nations and representing a wide range of musical styles. ROGUE WAVE

NIGHTINGALE FLOORS

VAGRANT/SHOCK RECORDS / ALTERNATIVE

• ROGUE WAVE release their fifth studio album, Nightingale Floors, on June 7 via Vagrant Records/Shock. This release follows the band's 2010 album Permalight and is their first for the label. The debut track from the album, titled "College," can be heard on-line now.

• The brainchild of Zach Schwartz (aka Zach Rogue) Rogue Wave formed in 2002 in Oakland, CA. While the line-up has changed from album to album the two constants have always been Zach and drummer Pat Spurgeon. Nightingale Floors finds the group secure in its sound and brimming with confidence. The result can only be described as a triumphant return to form.

• Meditations on life and death dominate Nightingale Floors, in large part because Rogue's father passed away during the writing of the record. But far from being a downer, Rogue has used the experience to find peace and, ultimately, happiness in facing up to the short time we have on Earth and appreciate everything around him. Much has been written about Rogue Wave's misfortune over the years, and it's true that for such a nice bunch of guys, they certainly have had their fair share of bad luck. Rogue points out, "Everyone has drama in their life. Everyone's experienced life and death and injury. Maybe us a little bit more, I don't know. I've always joked with Pat: 'Everything is trying to kill us, but we're still here.'"

FURTHER RELEASE

BRUCE SOORD WITH JONAS RENKSE

WISDOM OF CROWDS

KSCOPE / ROCK

Wisdom of Crowds is the new album from an exciting new project featuring Bruce Soord from The Pineapple Thief with Jonas Renkse from Katatonia.

The Pineapple Thief frontman, Bruce Soord, and Jonas Renkse, lead vocalist from Katatonia have announced a June 3rd, 2013 release date for Wisdom of Crowds, their new project for Kscope.

Originally written with Renkse's voice in mind, Soord sought out the acclaimed Katatonia vocalist to complete the compositions and release the music to the masses. Despite the rigorous schedules of The Pineapple Thief and Katatonia, the two musicians were eventually able to connect.

Both artists are currently enjoying unparalleled success with their main bands.

The Pineapple Thief have just completed a successful European tour following the release of their latest album, All The Wars in September. Rocksound described All The Wars as "an album of Muse-like, slow burning guitar anthems", while Classic Rock stated it was "the sound of a band reaching the height of their powers" and Prog argued it was an "elegant, sophisticated work... moody and meaningful, introspective and universal."

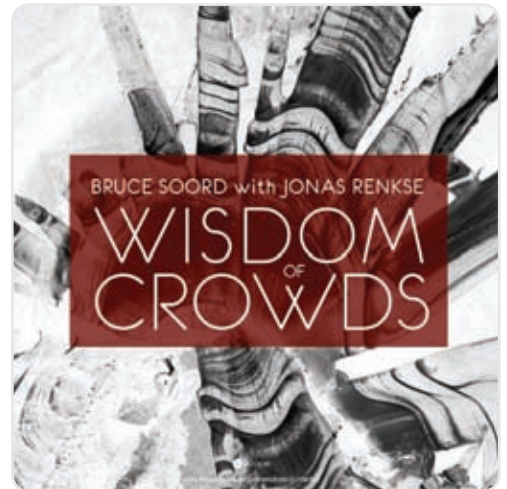

Katatonia also released a new album last year. Dead End Kings was released on the Peaceville label in August and reinforced their position as "one of the most consistently fascinating bands in modern heavy music." (Metal Hammer, 9/10). The album featured heavily in the album of the year polls of magazines around the world and was also nominated for a Grammy in the band's homeland of Sweden.
