FIVE BEDROOMS SEASON 1

FIVE SINGLES BUY A HOUSE TOGETHER – WHAT COULD GO RIGHT?

Five singles meet at, of all places, the singles' table at a wedding.

Not only do these five have a common relationship problem, they also find they have a common real estate problem. But on this night, they arrive at a solution – they could pitch in and get a house together. It's a crazy idea, but it takes hold – and before they know it, they're at an auction for a five bedroom house...

The five are Ainsley, a hopeless romantic for totally inappropriate men; Harry, a secretly gay Indian doctor still living with his mother; Liz, a newly divorced lawyer used to the high life; Ben, a tradie with a heart of gold who lives in a caravan; and Heather, a mum of two adult children who's on the brink of fifty and desperate for freedom.

The series charts the first year of this unique social, financial and romantic roll-of-the-dice as five utterly different people learn not just to cohabit, but to live together – in each other's lives, journeying together through disasters, life-turning crises, and moments of love, joy and heartbreak.

SURVIVING CHRISTMAS

SHARE THE WARMTH.

Directed by Mike Mitchell, Surviving Christmas finds Drew Latham (Ben Affleck) uneager to spend another lonely Christmas in his own home. Longing for holidays past, Drew travels to his childhood home intending to relive the experience of a family Christmas — unfortunately, his family no longer lives there. This represents only a small snafu to Drew, who offers the Valco patriarch and his wife (Sopranos star James Gandolfini and Catherine O'Hara) a huge amount of money if they consent to pretend they are his parents and that he is a cherished member of the family. This entails participating in Latham family traditions, such as Christmas tree selection and crowded holiday shopping excursions. Though the Valcos reluctantly go along with Drew's requests, Alicia, their eldest daughter, arrives at home and refuses to comply with her 'brother's' wishes.

ALL I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS

HOW FAR WOULD YOU GO TO MAKE A WISH COME TRUE?

If teenager Ethan and his younger sister Hallie put every toy in Macy's on their Christmas list, it still wouldn't include what they want most. They want a miracle - they want their divorced parents back together! With lots of humor, heart and yuletide sparkle, All I Want For Christmas is all you could want in a family film treat. Ethan Randall (Dutch) and Thora Birch (Patriot Games) play the siblings who come up with a hilarious plan to reunite their parents (Harley Jane Kozak and Jamey Sheridan). Movie legend Lauren Bacall plays the sympathetic grandmother who assists the kids. And Leslie Nielsen (The Naked Gun films) appears as Santa Claus. So what is the plan? Ho-ho-ho! Aren't you in for a surprise!

A MAJESTIC CHRISTMAS

THIS HOLIDAY SEASON, LOVE TAKES CENTER STAGE.

Junior architect Nell Porter (Jerrika Hinton) is over-the-moon when she's given her first big project to manage—until she learns it's a complete gutting and remodel of her hometown's beloved theater, The Majestic. The annual Briar Falls Christmas Pageant, along with the theater's colorful history and gorgeous architecture, will be lost once it is turned into a modernized multiplex, and the whole town is upset with the theater's new owner, Connor Goodrich (Christian Vincent). It's up to Nell to convince Connor to let the town have one final Christmas Pageant—and along the way, she may just warm his heart up to the magic of Christmas.

A HOLIDAY WISH COME TRUE

THE MAGIC OF CHRISTMAS WILL BRING THIS FAMILY BACK TOGETHER.

Recently separated parents Tracie (Schuyler Fisk) and Rick (David Clayton Rogers) have a functional routine: they each get to spend every other holiday with their young daughters Harper and Ava. But this Christmas, the girls put just one thing on their wish lists—to spend Christmas with both Mom and Dad at Tracie's family farmhouse. It will prove to be a difficult trip for Tracie: she'll have to listen as her siblings flaunt their perfect lives, and endure her mother's mission to protect her daughter by pointing out all Rick's faults and shortcomings. But at the end of the day, perhaps this Christmas gathering can help rekindle the lost romance between Tracie and Rick, and make their daughters' greatest wish come true.

A SNOW WHITE CHRISTMAS

A SWEET TWIST ON THE CLASSIC TALE.

When Blanca Snow (Michelle Randolph) is faced with spending Christmas with her stepmother, Victoria (Carolyn Hennesy), she attempts to fulfill her late father's wishes to create new memories as a family. When Victoria plots to edge Blanca out of her father's inheritance and keep the money for herself, she plans to renovate the house by hiring designer, Lucas Prince (Colt Prattes), but when he falls in love with Blanca, Victoria is outraged. With the help of her assistant, Victoria hypnotizes Blanca so she will forget everyone and everything about her father's will. When Blanca wakes up in a lodge out of town with amnesia, she receives the help of seven quirky friends to help her figure things out. While attempting to regain her memory, she finds herself the object of affection to both, Hunter, a local townsman, and Lucas Prince. But who will give her true love's kiss to break the amnesia spell and stop Victoria from stealing everything her father built?

CHRISTMAS AROUND THE CORNER

THEIR NEXT CHAPTER IS JUST BEGINNING.

Claire (Alexandra Breckenridge), a savvy venture capitalist from the city, escapes to a quaint town for the holidays and becomes a guest of the Fortenbury Bookstore. Upon arrival, Claire finds Christmas celebrations have been canceled by the town after a flood and the bookstore is in a dire state of disrepair. She immediately takes on the challenge to revitalize the store, but clashes with the owner, Andrew (Jamie Spilchuk), who initially rejects all her proposed improvements. However, as they work together, sparks fly and the two begin a budding romance. Claire's infectious optimism even inspires Andrew to join her in reviving the yuletide spirit. When Claire discovers that Andrew is planning to sell the bookstore in the new year, will the spirit of Christmas be enough to change Andrew's mind and encourage him to follow his heart?

CHRISTMAS BY THE BOOK

THIS HOLIDAY, THROW OUT THE RULES.

Romance expert, Joanna Moret (Chelsea Kane), has developed a strategy for ending holiday loneliness and it's all detailed in her best-selling book. After appearing on a morning show she is offered the biggest opportunity of her career—to throw the MacAllen Holiday Gala—and if all goes well she'll get her own TV show. Little does anyone know, she is newly single and can't seem to apply her principles to her own love life. Joanna asks the morning show producer, Ted (Drew Seeley), to pretend they are a couple or risk being exposed as a fraud. When Ted agrees, she never expects to find herself falling for him. Upon arrival at the mansion, however, the handsome Del MacAllen (Chad Connell) takes an interest in Joanna and Ted's ex-girlfriend shows up to win him back. Suddenly she finds herself in the middle of a bizarre holiday love triangle. Will she be able to throw the best party of the year and still convince everyone she is the expert on love or will she lose everything?

CHRISTMAS MAKEOVER

CAN AN UNEXPECTED TRIP AWAY BRING BACK HER CHRISTMAS SPIRIT?

Haley Hanson (Lily Anne Harrison) puts her job as an advertising executive above everything else, even during the holidays. So when Tyler Toys is looking for a new agency to represent them, Haley is more than ready to put together the pitch. However, her boss worries her lack of Christmas spirit will be a factor and sends her to Christmas Camp. Disconnected from everything, Haley now must learn to take a breath, bond with her fellow campers—including the owner's handsome son Jeff (Bobby Campo)—and give in to a retreat aimed at restoring Christmas cheer. While the idea of completing the camp seems like just another job to her at first, Haley soon begins to discover more with the importance of love, friendship, family and the things that make the holiday season truly special.

A CHRISTMAS COINCIDENCE

SOMETIMES YOU HAVE TO REVISIT THE PAST TO CHANGE THE FUTURE.

As Christmas approaches, Paula (Kimberley Sustad), an antique appraiser, reluctantly accepts a marriage proposal from her boyfriend Daniel. Sensing her hesitance, her Aunt Jane (Kathie Lee Gifford) invites Paula to her Nantucket home. When Paula visits nearby Martha's Vineyard, she meets a charming inn owner, Gery (Paul Campbell). Throughout her stay, a series of coincidences keep bringing the two together, and when the weather gets bad, Gery offers her a room at his inn. Paula tries to stay her path, but as they celebrate holiday festivities together, she begins to realize that they were meant to be.

MEMORIES OF CHRISTMAS

REDISCOVER THE JOY OF THE HOLIDAY SEASON.

After years of living under her mother's excessive Christmas obsession, Noelle (Christina Milian) swore off Christmas and started a new chapter in her life by moving to the city to focus on her career. Becoming a workaholic, her boss forces her to take a break to go home and enjoy the holiday season. Since her mother passed away a year ago, Noelle sees it as an opportunity to finally pack up her mother's belongings and sell the house. Returning home, Noelle abruptly meets Dave (Mark Taylor) when he awakens her while putting up Christmas lights on her house. It's part of a neighborhood tradition that Dave embraced in addition to his taking over the annual Christmas gala, which Noelle's mother had previously managed. As Noelle spends more time with Dave to plan the Christmas gala, she begins to discover the Christmas joy that brought her mom so much happiness.

SPOTLIGHT UNDER THE MISTLETOE

MUSIC BROUGHT THEM TOGETHER, CAN LOVE MAKE IT LAST?

After music starlet Tess Stapleton's (Hannah Barefoot) album sales keep dropping, her label forces her to record a Christmas album with ex-teen heartthrob and pop-star, Derek Copeland (Evan Gamble), in an attempt to resurrect her career. Reluctantly, Tess agrees. At first they appear to be polar opposites; clashing over song styles and irritated that they were forced together. However, over time they find themselves growing closer over their shared appreciation of music. As they finish the album sparks begin to fly and love blooms just in time for Christmas.

THE CHRISTMAS SWAP

THE SWAP OF THE SEASON.

Struggling singer Audrey (Jackie Seiden) loves Christmas, but wealthy record executive Julie (Ashley Wood) just sees it as another reason to shop. The two women have nothing in common until a freak accident at the mall knocks them both unconscious and they wake up in each other's bodies. Now Audrey has a life of luxury like she never imagined while Julie has the loving home she never admitted she wanted. However, as Christmas looms closer, they realize they'd regret not spending the holiday with their own families and will do anything to switch back.

THE LAST CHRISTMAS HOME

AT CHRISTMAS ALL ROADS LEAD HOME.

Every year the three Marvin sisters gather from across the country to spend Christmas together under the same roof in their beloved childhood home. And while they couldn't be any more different from one another, they all agree on one thing: there's nothing more magical than spending Christmas together with their parents. Unfortunately, this legacy is coming to an end as their parents have decided to sell the house, and their buyer is Megan's (Erin Cahill) very attractive high-school sweetheart Nash (Justin Bruening). As they spend more time together Megan begins to realize that she could be falling in love, with the very man poised to undo the memories she's so desperate to protect. When Christmas morning arrives, will the Marvins have to say goodbye to the memories and traditions that have shaped them? Or could it be the start of a new tradition, with more memories to come?

THE TRUTH ABOUT CHRISTMAS

THIS CHRISTMAS, SHE CAN'T LIE.

Jillian (Kali Hawk) is on track to have the perfect life. She's a star political consultant dating George Beauman (Damon Dayoub), who is about to be one of the youngest candidates to run for mayor. And she's going to meet his family for Christmas. All is going according to plan until George asks Jillian if she remembered to pick up the present for his young niece, the very sought after 'Poppy Dot'—Oops! As Jillian finds the last one at the toy store and concocts a lie to get it from a little girl who had it first, the store Santa witnesses the incident and creates some Christmas magic. By the time Jillian gets to meet George's family for the first time, she cannot tell a lie. Hijinks ensue as Jillian does everything she can to hold on to George and her job. But not being able to lie helps Jillian realize who she really is and what she really wants, including, maybe, George's cute, grounded brother and a political run for herself, instead of being a consultant and a politician's wife.
